Cascadia Robotics, Inc.

Company Overview - Fiscal Year 2026

Prepared by Corporate Strategy | July 2026

Agenda

- Who we are and what we build
- FY2026 performance snapshot
- Revenue by business segment
- Fulfillment network at a glance
- Priorities for the next twelve months
- Questions and discussion

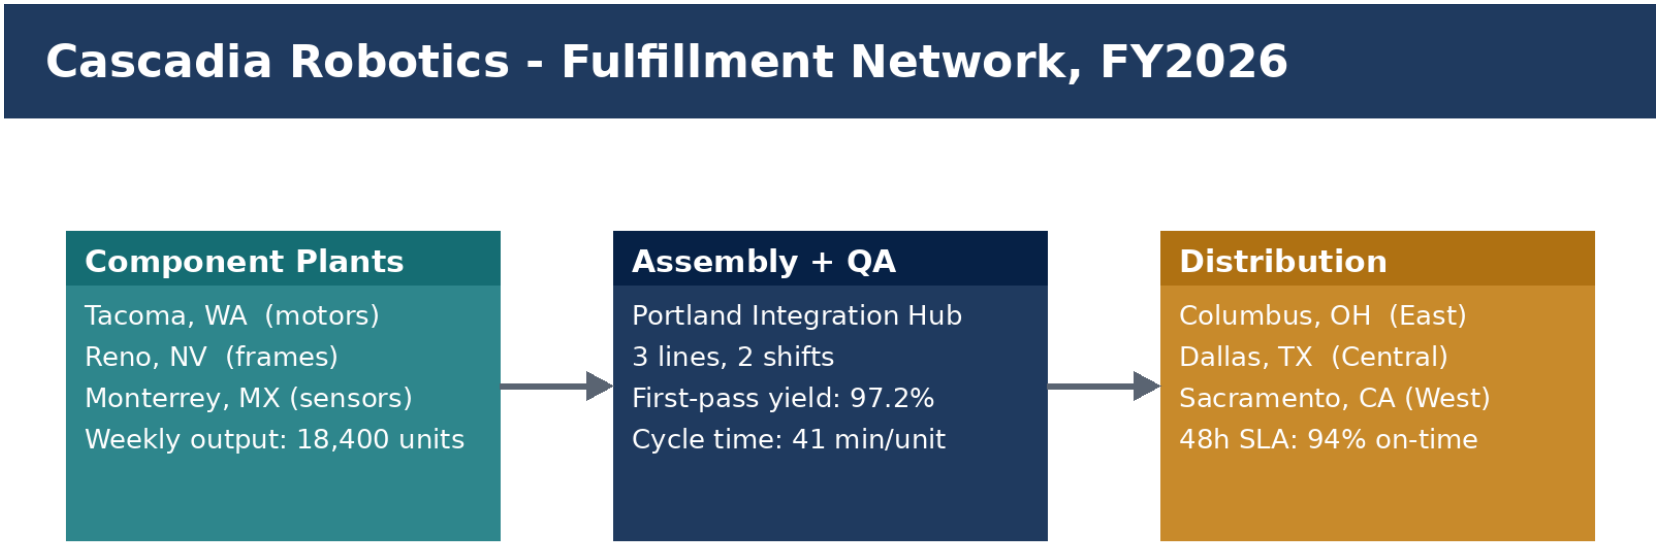

Who We Are

- Founded 2014 in Portland, Oregon; 640 employees across 6 sites
- We design and build warehouse automation robots
  - Line-side tote shuttles (Kestrel series)
  - Autonomous pallet movers (Osprey series)
  - Fleet orchestration software (Skyway platform)
- 212 customer deployments in North America and Europe
- FY2026 revenue of $148.6M, up 22% year over year

Revenue by Segment (FY2026)

Segment	FY2025 ($M)	FY2026 ($M)	Growth	Share
Kestrel shuttles	58.1	71.4	+22.9%	48.1%
Osprey pallet movers	36.9	43.2	+17.1%	29.1%
Skyway software	18.3	24.7	+35.0%	16.6%
Service and spares	8.5	9.3	+9.4%	6.2%
Total	121.8	148.6	+22.0%	100.0%

Fulfillment Network at a Glance

6	18,400	97.2%	94%
sites in network	units / week capacity	first-pass yield	48-hour delivery SLA

Priorities for FY2027

- Scale Skyway platform to 40% software attach on new deployments
- Open the Rotterdam integration hub to serve EU customers locally
  - Target: first EU-assembled units shipping by March 2027
- Reduce unit cost of the Kestrel K-300 by 11% via redesign
- Grow service contract renewals from 81% to 90%
- Maintain first-pass yield above 97% while adding a third line